Tic Tac Toe! Complete ONE project for each book that you read this Summer! Create a row of 3 for your first homework assignment, and each incentive level! All 3 are due Friday, August 30.

Book Advertisement: Create a Tik Tok (or use a platform of your choice) to create an advertisement for your book! Who should read it? Why? How many stars would you give it? Be sure to share important plot points, without giving away any spoilers! (You can email a link to kathryn.garret@mnps.org , or your homeroom teacher, once the school year has started.)	Dear Diary! Pretend to be one of the main characters from your novel and write a diary entry from the character’s point of view. Explain how this character is thinking/feeling about a pivotal event, major decision, etc. Reflect on what is happening as well as how the character may be changed. (Must be one page)	Book Cover Create a new and fresh cover for your book. Your book cover must include the following things: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the title and author • at least one picture • a summary of the book on the back cover The summary must describe the characters and setting, highlight the major events and explain the major problem (but not reveal the ending). The summary should be at least 7 to 10 sentences.
Alternative Ending Re-write your version of the ending of the book. You must include a description of the setting, character description and dialogue (conversation between characters), and come up with a NEW solution to the problem that was present in the book. The new ending must be at least a paragraph (7 to 10 sentences in length) or longer.	Author Inquiry! Write a letter to the author of your novel. Explain what you liked and disliked, ask any questions that you have about the story/characters, explain what you would have changed if you were the author, and mention at least one thing that you will always remember about this novel and why. (The letter should be written in friendly letter format and must be at least one page)	Poetry Corner! Write a poem or song lyrics that connects to your novel. You can focus on the plot (what happened), characters, or personal connections that you have with this novel. *Must be at least 20 lines
Social Media Sleuth Create a “screen shot” of what one of the main character’s social media accounts might look like. Create the account, or draw what it might look like.	Newspaper Article: Identify the major conflict (problem) in your book. Then, turn that conflict into an action packed news story.	Collage! Create a collage depicting a theme from the novel. Explain how this collage depicts the theme in a separate paragraph (7 to 10 sentences in length). Use

Be sure to include comments, hashtags, and pictures that you think this character would use. Write a paragraph to explain why you made these choices.	The article should include the 5 W's (who, what, when, where, why) in descriptive detail using specific elements from the book.	colorful pictures from magazines, print images from the web, or draw your own.
